

Save the Date

Coordinating A COMMUNITY RESPONSE To Family Violence

Wednesday, October 3, 2007

Rabobank Convention Center

1001 Truxtun Avenue

Bakersfield, California

8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Continental Breakfast & Lunch will be provided.

We welcome all Social Service Agencies, School Personnel, Law Enforcement, Medical Providers and all community based agencies. Possible continuing educational credit (CEU) may be available. Registration information will be available soon.

Promoting healthy, non-abusive families and relationships is not the sole responsibility of the domestic violence service providers. Successful intervention depends on a consistent coordinated community response designed to create safety and support for victims of domestic violence and their children.

Domestic Violence Advisory Council

Partnering to stop family violence in Kern County

Registration Fee $40.00

For more information contact
Cindy London (661)326-3196